Description:

Review "This book is great...an amazing person and I miss him to this day, and read his story in this book, it's very well done." --Eddie Trunk, 'That Metal Show'

"It is a great book man, it really is." --Jim Florentine, 'That Metal Show'

"It was very painful to read, and very informative...being such a part of most of the years of Eric's KISS tenure, made me relive my years in the band with him. Naturally, a must read for any Eric fan."
--Bruce Kulick, ex-Kiss guitarist

"I would definitely say it's finally an accurate portrayal of one of the greatest drummers, and one of the nicest people that was ever, ever on the face of this earth." --Charlie Benante, Anthrax drummer

"Prato's book on Eric Carr was wonderful, read it twice. Stuff I never heard about before like Eric Singer ghosting on 'Hot in the Shade.' It's sad to see Carr was right about Singer replacing him. Lotsa good info, great job. I learned more from this book than I did from Ace's autobiography!" --Shandon Sahn, Meat Puppets drummer

"I am so grateful that people will have the chance to know the real Eric Carr, as I did." --Carrie Stevens (Eric Carr's girlfriend)

"For fans of KISS - from any era of their nearly 40 years together, this book is a must. The Eric Carr Story lays it all out, spoken by many of those who were actually there." --Greg Barbrick, blogcritics.org

"Prato hunts down a variety of pivotal characters in the KISS drummer's life...it is an insightful and touching look at Carr's life up until his death on November 24, 1991." --Steven Rosen, curledup.com

"The Eric Carr Story' takes you back to a great era of Kiss. Eric is an important piece of the Kiss puzzle." --Stone & Double T, WXRX, Rockford, IL "The information presented is fascinating. It's certainly mandatory for all Kiss fans. The quotes and stories come fast and furious." --JP, metalrules.com
